University of Washington ADVANCE Bibliography

The following references are a compilation of research regarding equity in workplaces and academic scholarship spanning many disciplines and topics. This archive represents five years of scholarship collected for grants proposals, journal articles, conference papers and presentations, and web content in advocacy of underrepresented groups in higher education. Specific topics included in this comprehensive bibliography are diversity, mentoring, faculty recruitment and retention, unexamined bias, work/life balance, and underrepresentation in STEM, and are relevant to women, mentors, evaluation committee members, lesbians & gays in higher education, underrepresented student populations, academic leaders, scientists, social scientists, and diversity advocates.

Education, A. C. o. (?). An Agenda for Excellence: Creating Flexibility in Tenure-Track Faculty Careers.

July 27, 2011

Wunsch, M. (1994). Mentoring can serve as a powerful tool to identify and change personal and institutional practices and attitudes that may be barriers to women's success. Initiatives, 56(1), 1-9.

